

FEMP
FIRST THURSDAY
SEMIN@RS

Course Announcement!

Energy 101, Introduction to Energy Management

Live! Thursday, March 4, 2010

1:30 pm - 3:00 pm EST

FEMP First Thursday Seminars provide training for Federal energy and environmental professionals. Leading experts will address timely topics in 90-minute sessions, offered live via satellite or through streaming video at your desktop. First Thursday of each month at 1:30-3:00 pm EST.

Register Now!
For further information and registration:
<http://www.femp.energy.gov/training>

Course:	Energy 101, Introduction to Energy Management
What you will learn:	Energy 101 provides an introduction to energy management including the following topics: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • an overview of energy management components: energy efficiency, renewable energy, and water efficiency; • legislative basis for energy management; • process diagram for getting started in energy management; • establishing baseline measurements; • developing improvement plans; • financing options; • greening your purchasing; and • resources for energy managers.
About the Expert:	Linda Mesaros has vast experience in the environmental, energy, and procurement areas. She served as Deputy of the Office of the Environmental Executive (OFEE). Ms. Mesaros also served as the Chief of Staff of the White House Task Force on Waste Prevention, Recycling, and Federal Acquisition. Ms. Mesaros led the federal government's efforts in the implementation of Executive Order 13101, Greening the Government Through Recycling, Waste Prevention, and Federal Acquisition. Ms. Mesaros formerly served as Deputy Administrator for Procurement Innovation at the Office of Management and Budget's Office of Federal Procurement Policy (OFPP). In this position, she provided procurement policy leadership and management direction for the entire Federal government on energy, environmental, electronic commerce, small business, and performance-based service contracting initiatives. Ms. Mesaros is President of Mesaros Associates Inc. a woman-owned small business that specializes in environmental, energy, and contracting consulting services for the Federal government. Most recently, Ms. Mesaros has been actively involved in sustainability efforts and sustainable acquisition within the federal government where she currently supports both the Department of Energy, the Department of Agriculture, and the Department of State.

